NEW RACE LAWSUIT FILED

WHITE TENANT ATTACKS BLACK TEENAGER

YET BLACK FAMILY FACES EVICTION

Ypsilanti Township – The Fair Housing Center (FHC) of Southeastern Michigan has aided in the filing of a new race discrimination lawsuit against Swan Creek Mobile Home Community in Ypsilanti.

In April 2014, the FHC took a complaint from Paula Scott. Ms. Scott reported that her family received an eviction notice after her 17-year-old African-American daughter, Zakara Scott, was pushed to the ground and physically assaulted by Amanda Cadreau, a white tenant at Swan Creek.

According to the lawsuit, “Ms. Cadreau assaulted and battered Plaintiff Zakara Scott as Zakara exited a school bus at the Defendant’s manufactured home park community [...] The police report was filed immediately thereafter, listing Zakara Scott as victim of Amanda Cadreau’s assault and battery.”

Swan Creek requested and obtained written statements regarding the incident, but only from the family of Amanda Cadreau. Two days after the assault and battery incident, Swan Creek served the Scotts with an eviction notice.

“Swan Creek treated the African–American victim like the perpetrator and the white perpetrator like the victim; and we are talking about an African-American teenager assaulted by a white adult,” said Ann Routt, Board President of the Fair Housing Center. Amanda Cadreau was criminally convicted and sentenced for the March 5, 2014 assault of Zakara Scott.

The case was referred to the Fair Housing Center by Legal Services of South Central Michigan (LSSCM). Legal Services attorneys successfully stopped the eviction of the Scott family. FHC Cooperating Attorney Steve Tomkowiak assisted LSSCM on the eviction and agreed to continue with the civil rights portion of the case. On December 19th, Mr. Tomkowiak filed suit on behalf of the Scott family in U.S. Federal District Court. LSSCM plan to act as co-counsel. The case is assigned to the Honorable Bernard A. Friedman.
