If you hear this, call us:

"Sorry, we just rented the last apartment"
"No disability, we only rent to working people"
"No children allowed"
"You have to be married"
"You'll have to end your maternity leave and return to work before we can process your loan application"
"A boy and a girl can't share a bedroom"
"If you go out with me, I'll lower your rent payment"
"We must have lost your application"
"You might feel more comfortable in another neighborhood"
"You don't look like I thought"

Federal law bans housing discrimination based on:

Race, Color, Religion, National Origin,
Sex (including sexual harrassment and potentially gender identity & sexual orientation), Disability, Familial Status (the presense of children)

Michigan law adds protection based on:

Age, Marital Status

The Fair Housing Center of Southeastern Michigan is a private, non-profit organization committed to ending discrimination in the rental, sales, and financing of housing.
