Fair Housing Center Raising Funds to Combat Housing Discrimination

ANN ARBOR, MI –

The Fair Housing Center (FHC) will host its 7th Annual Fair Housing Breakfast on March 19th at Weber’s Inn. Funds raised from this event go directly to ending housing discrimination and expanding equal housing opportunities, making our community more open, accessible, and inclusive for all.

All are welcome to attend this event, which brings together housing professionals, advocates, educators, government officials, and other community members from across our eight-county service area. We are pleased to announce that the Breakfast has been approved for 1-hour non-legal elective CE credit by CE Marketplace for Real Estate professionals.

Lisa Rice, President and CEO of the National Fair Housing Alliance (NFHA), the nation’s only national civil rights agency solely dedicated to eliminating all forms of housing discrimination, will be our guest speaker. Ms. Rice has played a leadership role in bringing many precedent-setting fair housing cases which have resulted in the elimination of systemic discriminatory policies and practices and the expansion of fair housing opportunities for millions of people.

The title of her talk is “Fair Housing: What’s Ahead for 2020?”

Ms. Rice is a member of the Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights Board of Directors, JPMorgan Chase Consumer Advisory Council, Mortgage Bankers Association’s Consumer Advisory Council, Freddie Mac Affordable Housing Advisory Council, Urban Institute’s Mortgage Servicing Collaborative, Quicken Loans Advisory Committee, and America’s Homeowner Alliance Advisory Board.

A fundraiser to end illegal housing discrimination and expand housing opportunities in our communities.

The Fair Housing Center of Southeast and Mid Michigan, founded in 1992, actively protects the civil rights of those who are discriminated against in the rental, sale, or financing of housing through investigation, education, advocacy, and legal action. The FHC takes an average of 160 complaints each year from its eight-county service area – Clinton, Eaton, Ingham, Jackson, Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe, and Washtenaw counties. Our mission is to end discrimination in housing and public accommodations and to promote accessible, integrated communities. The Breakfast is our primary fundraising event.
